ELECTION BALLOT 2012

The deadline for the 2012 election ballot for Nebraska Country Music Foundation Board of Directors is October 9, 2011. Anyone who is interested in putting their name on the ballot must do so in writing and mail your request to NCMF, P.O. Box 1408, Hastings, NE 68902. You may also send your name & request to Deb Shaw, 30550 Birch Rd, Glenvil, NE 68941, or email to me debrashaw@windstream.net. NO names will be accepted unless in writing, and no later than October 9, 2011. Being on the Board of Directors requires a lot of hard work, dedication, attend meetings, do fundraisers and events, sell ads, and help at the annual festival. It is a hard non-paying job, but the smiles, tears of happiness, & listening to talent is PRICELESS. The Board of Directors has a Protocol & Procedures that outlines the responsibilities & expectations of a Board of Director. Anyone who is interested in putting their name on the ballot may request a copy of it from me before entering their name on the ballot. All persons on the election ballot will be introduced on stage during the awards banquet October 15, 2011.

NEBRASKA COUNTRY MUSIC FOUNDATION® BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTION 2012

Election for the Board of Directors 2012 will be done by mail again this year. It provides the best opportunity for every due paid member to vote. Remember memberships expire at the opening date of the Festival in the following year. If you want to renew your membership to the Nebraska Country Music Foundation and are unable to attend the Festival this year, please contact me & I will mail you a membership form and you can return it to me with the membership fee of $25.00 prior to the festival. One of the many benefits of being a member of the NCMF is the right to vote for 8 Board of Directors to represent the Foundation; to each of us it is a high honor to have this privilege. The week after the Festival, each member for 2012 will be mailed an election ballot and I must receive it on or before November 10, 2011. The current Board of Directors will open and count the sealed ballots at the November meeting and the results will be announced to the members by letter. Results will also be posted on the NCMF website www.necmf.net. The 2012 Board of Directors will be required to attend the December meeting, where they will vote for their President for 2012. The 2011 Officers/Board of Directors will stay in office until the January 2012 meeting. I want to thank each and every one of you for having an interest in the Nebraska Country Music Foundation.

ATTENTION FESTIVAL PERFORMERS!

We are requesting that performers competing in the 2011 Festival doing their songs with the Festival Band come prepared. Practice time with the festival band will be limited this year as we are having a Jam Session on Tuesday night and a Battle of the Bands on Wednesday night. Performers will need to send or email me the TITLE OF THE SONG, THE KEY YOU NEED, AND THE ARTIST THAT SINGS IT BY SEPTEMBER 18. I will then pass the list to the Festival Band so they can have some preparation prior to the festival. Knowing your song(s) prior to the festival will help cut down on the necessary practice time and help speed up the time for performers. If you have the song on CD, you can mail the CD to me & it will be returned to you. The category for "Golden Oldie Country Song of the Year" and the new category of "Tribute to Veterans" may bring out several new songs that the band has not done before. Please send or email your songs ASAP to Deb Shaw, 30550 Birch Rd, Glenvil NE 68941 or email them to debrashaw@windstream.net. We are making every attempt to help you the performer be prepared for competition and your help will be sincerely appreciated!

BANK ACCOUNT!!!

This is AWESOME ... something we should all remember.

A 92-year-old, petite, well-poised and proud man, who is fully dressed each morning by eight o'clock, with his hair fashionably combed and shaved perfectly, even though he is legally blind, moved to a nursing home today. His wife of 70 years recently passed away, making the move necessary. After many hours of waiting patiently in the lobby of the nursing home, he smiled sweetly when told his room was ready. As he maneuvered his walker to the elevator, I provided a visual description of his tiny room, including the eyelet sheets that had been hung on his window. I love it,' he stated with the enthusiasm of an eight-year-old having just been presented with a new puppy. Mr. Jones, you haven't seen the room; just wait.'

'That doesn't have anything to do with it,' he replied. Happiness is something you decide on ahead of time. Whether I like my room or not doesn't depend on how the furniture is arranged ... it's how I arrange my mind.

I already decided to love it. 'It's a decision I make every morning when I wake up. I have a choice; I can spend the day in bed recounting the difficulty I have with the parts of my body that no longer work, or get out of bed and be thankful for the ones that do. Each day is a gift, and as long as my eyes open, I'll focus on the new day and all the happy memories I've stored away. Just for this time in my life. Old age is like a bank account. You withdraw from what you've put in. So, my advice to you would be to deposit a lot of happiness in the bank account of memories!

Thank you for your part in filling my Memory Bank. I am still depositing.

Remember the five simple rules to be happy:

1. Free your heart from hatred.
2. Free your mind from worries.
3. Live simply.
4. Give more.
5. Expect less.
